Dear Mrs. Springer:

Thank you for your continued interest in the Illinois Regional Archives Depository System (IRAD).

In response to your letter of April 27, we were, unfortunately, only able to find scant information concerning the names of your request. Perhaps the good news first, we located a listing for a Thomas F. Cassin on p. 921 of the Civil Service Commission Civil Registers. This record, however, does not list much information.

The record indicates Thomas F. Cassin was appointed patrolman by Civil Service Exam- C.S. on April 2, 1906, #56157. This record does not list his address nor does it list any other corroborating evidence that this is the person you seek. Based on the information that in the directory of 1895 he is listed as a policeman, this led our search to the Registered Voters and Poll List for the year 1892. Ashland Ave., was born in Wisconsin, lived in the precinct for 5 years, the county for 9 years, and in the State for 9 years. The record also shows that he voted in that year. It is hoped that this information will help, and will be the same person of your search. No other listings for Thomas Cassin were found in any of our other Civil Service Commission holdings.

Permit for Burial will be issued only on this form of Report correctly filled out with ink.

$8,000,000,000 FOR VICTORY, REPLY TO FOE

House Passes Greatest of All Tax Bills by a Unanimous Vote.

profits, liquors, tobacco, and luxuries—were approved by the house substantially as drafted unanimously by the ways and means committee after three months' labor. Roughly, the total tax levy doubles present returns from internal revenue under existing laws.

In the senate mounting war expenses and revenue reduction by prohibition reductors entering into revision, expected to be extensive. Much senate sentiment exists for reduction of the 11's aggregate levy, while Secretary McAdoo already has disapproved any substantial increase.

Major Tax Features.

Major tax features of the bill, as transmitted to the senate, and estimated revenue yields include:

Income tax:

Individuals' normal rate increased from 5 to 12 per cent, with the first $1,000 at 6 per cent and exemptions $1,000 for single and $2,000 for married persons—$414,000,000.

Individual surtaxes on incomes over $1,000; present ranges of 1 to 65 per cent increased to from 2 to 63 per cent—$1,068,000,000.

Corporations' incomes, increased from 6 to 13 per cent, but with only 12 per cent payable on dividends distributed, debts paid, and new Liberty bonds bought—$894,000,000.

War and excess profits of corporations—30 per cent on war profits and actually doubled rates on excess profit ranging from 35 to 70 per cent—$200,000,000.

Liquor, present rates doubled—$37,600,000.

Tobacco, present rates doubled—$1,204,000.

Luxuries and semi-luxuries, 30 and 40 per cent—$272,555,000.

Other excise taxes, including automobile sales, jewelry, 2 cents a gallon on profits, liquors, tobacco, and luxuries—were approved by the house substantially as drafted unanimously by the ways and means committee after three months' labor. Roughly, the total tax levy doubles present returns from internal revenue under existing laws.

In senate mounting war expenses and revenue reduction by prohibition are factors entering into revision, expected to be extensive. Much senate sentiment exists for reduction of the bill's aggregate levy, while Secretary McAdoo already has disapproved any substantial increase.

Major Tax Features.

Major tax features of the bill, as transmitted to the senate, and estimated revenue yields include:

Income tax:

Individuals' normal rate increased from 5 to 12 per cent, with the first $4,000 at 6 per cent and exemptions of $1,000 for single and $2,000 for married persons—$414,000,000.

Individual surtaxes on incomes over $5,000; present ranges of 1 to 65 per cent increased to from 2 to 63 per cent—$1,068,000,000.

Corporations' incomes, increased from 6 to 13 per cent, but with only 12 per cent payable on dividends distributed, debts paid, and new Liberty bonds bought—$894,000,000.

War and excess profits of corporations—80 per cent on war profits and virtually doubled rates on excess profits, ranging from 35 to 70 per cent—$3,200,000,000.

Beverages, present rates doubled—1,137,800,000.

Tobacco, present rates doubled—$41,204,000.

Luxuries and semi-luxuries, 20 and 10 per cent—$272,555,000.

Other excise taxes, including automobile sales, jewelry, 2 cents a gallon on

BATTLE LISTS OF DAY BEAR NAMES OF 5 CHICAGOANS

Only one Chicagoan was named in the official casualty list issued last night—Private Arthur Woodman, an interpreter with the One Hundred and Sixteenth United States engineers, missing in action. His home is at 1123 Noyes street, Evanston. Relatives previously had notified THE TRIBUNE and a picture and biography were published Sept. 18.

Four Chicagoans were named in the early list, one killed in action, one dead of wounds, one wounded severely, and one missing in action. In the Canadian list, G. A. Warburton was listed as killed in action and C. A. Goodrich as missing in action.

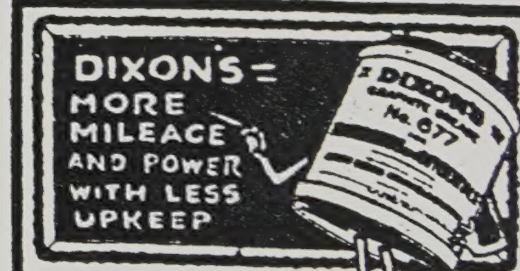

After received yesterday by Mrs. Elizabeth Cassin of 1648 North Central Park avenue, conveyed the information that her son, Private Matthew J. Cassin of Company E, One Hundred and Eighth engineers, had been killed in action. He was performing night construction work in some newly captured territory close to the German lines when caught in an enemy barrage.

Mrs. J. Turgstad, 2234 North Tripp avenue, has received word by letter that her adopted son, Private John E. Janine, Fifth United States Field Artillery, has been gassed. He enlisted in May, 1917. He was formerly a foreman with the Western Electric company.

The parents of Lieut. William Hugh Shearman Jr. of the United States aero forces are still awaiting official confirmation of the report that he is missing.

LAKE CAPTAIN ONCE SAILED WITH TNT

Cassin Says 3,200-Ton Cargo Was Given Ample Leeway in Brest

Potential heroism of the steamboat captains of the great lakes was never better illustrated than by the discovery of the wartime career of Capt. John Cassin, weather-beaten autocrat of the excursion steamer Columbia, running from the municipal pier to Jackson park. In the autumn of 1918 when the submarine peril was at its height, Capt. Cassin sailed from New York to Brest on the quarter-deck of a steamer loaded to the Plimsoll mark with enough TNT to destroy every living thing within two miles.

"We sailed from New York in September with the S.S. Yosemite," said Capt. Cassin. "At Halifax we loaded our cargo of straight TNT. It came in all to 3,200 tons of explosive, and you may get an idea of what that means by remembering that the Halifax disaster that wrecked the town and the shipping was caused by the explosion of 700 tons."

Found Warnings Unnecessary.

"Weren't you pretty anxious about the the loading?" he was asked.

The sailor smiled.

"No one was able to breathe easily for a week," he said. "I watched the loading myself, but there wasn't any need to caution the men at the cargo derricks to let the stuff down gently. There wasn't any need to caution the handlers not to bang the boxes on deck either, I can tell you. The stuff was packed in cotton wool in wooden boxes and the boxes were repacked in straw to prevent the possibility of an explosion from concussion in handling.

"Going across we didn't allow the men to smoke except in their own quarters and, of course, like all other ships in the submarine zone we had every light doused and our deadlight painted black.

Given Ample Leeway.

"When we unloaded at the quay at Brest every other vessel was ordered away and I can tell you they didn't lose any time about it either.

"The thing that impressed me most was the American soldiers that were landing in Brest. Thousands upon thousands of them were marching up the narrow cobble-stoned streets, singing and laughing and cheering. They were going to the trenches, but you would have thought they were going to a picnic. I tell you it made me proud of my country."

Re: CASSIN

Dear Carol:

I think there is a connection!

It is my understanding that two Cassin brothers came from Ireland. There were seven brothers but they lost track of them.

I think our connection is through Kate Cassin (Catherine - Kitty.)

The family history passed down to me by my Grandmother, who was Kitty Cassin's second daughter is as follows:

John and Mary Hickey (I did not know her name until now) settled in Milwaukee and opened a store. She could not read or write but kept the records through some system she devised. However, John was educated. HE was born in Tipperary and SHE was born in Kilkenny. Mary used to say that she was a "Kilkenny Cat." I never heard anything about County Mayo.

I remember Uncle Johnny Cassin (John J.) as a child. He was a Captain on a Great Lakes Boat and use to take us on trips with him. I don't ever remember meeting his family. I am enclosing two newspaper articles about him.

Aunt Annie and Uncle Johnny Graham lived in Chicago. He did own a building on the corner of Cicero and Madison. His name was on the building. I was there many times visiting him (after Aunt Annie died) with my grandmother. Margaret and Cassin Francis Graham were my cousins. I don't know if the building is still there because the neighborhood is not a very safe place anymore. John Graham came to Chicago from Dixon, Illinois.

I think you may be related through a cousin, Aunt Lizzy. They lived on the south side in a town called Gresham which is now annexed to Chicago at about 87th and Halsted. She was married to a postman named John Mullen. Their children were named Nellie, Lambert, Benton and another daughter whose name I don't recall.

There is a similarity in the names. Your great-grandfather married Elizabeth and Aunt Lizzy could have been named for her. She had a daughter named Nellie which is used for Mary in Irish families. I don't know where the Mullen family is buried.

I don't recall hearing anything about Mary Cassin.

As to (our?) great-great grandparents John Cassin and Mary Hickey my grandmother talked about her Grandfather Cassin coming to their house when they were children in Chicago and bringing them all candy. She said he was a dapper dresser with a white beard. I do not know where John and Mary Hickey Cassin are buried.

Most of our family is buried in Mt. Carmel Cemetery in Hillside, Illinois. This cemetery opened in 1900. It has no record of John and Mary Hickey Cassin.

Anna L., John and Cassin Francis Graham are buried in Mt. Carmel, Hillside.

As to Catherine (Kitty-Kate) Cassin:

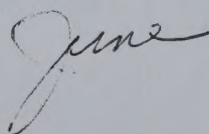

She was my great grandmother. She is buried in Mt. Carmel. She died in Chicago at age 65 in 1925. At the time of her death she was married to James J. Carroll.

She was originally married to George Gordon Peck who is my great grandfather. They were married March 15, 1879. They settled in Clinton, Iowa where George Gordon's family had settled as pioneers from the East Coast. They had two daughters Mary Pearl and Frances Elizabeth (my grandmother.) George died in Stockton, California in 1900.

Kitty returned to her parents in Chicago with her two little girls. Eventually she was remarried to James Carroll and had other children.

I am happy that you contacted me! If I learn anything at all about the Cassins and in particular John and Mary Hickey Cassin I will certainly let you know at once.

Let's keep in touch.

FLORENCE LOUISE ^{Sources} CASSIN HINTZ - # 7
Tape recording made with daughter Florence at 5500 N. Marmora Ave., Chicago 1970s?

NELLIE asked me about MARGARET. I said I don't know anything about her. She got all of BUD's money. UNCLE JOHN said he wasn't going to forget us.

What's MARGARET's last name? LAMBERT--he's dead. She was living in Oak Park, but she moved I think.

Where does NELLIE live? Nellie lives way out on the 73rd St. somewhere. CONNIE...

ETTA's last name? I don't know.

Where was your grandfather born? In MECKLENBURG. My father's father was born in COUNTY MAYO, IRELAND.

My GRANDMA and her brother GEHRING from Iowa were raised in an orphanage. She only had a brother and those two were raised in an orphanage.

What was her maiden name before she was married? GEHRING. Before she was married. That was grandma's name--what was her mother's name? That I don't know. They came from Mecklenburg.

My grandma had enough money to send to her brother to come to America. Then they all went to Iowa--my grandma and grandpa were married and then they went to Iowa.

Your mother had how many brothers and sisters? One brother. That's all I know.

How is GRAHAM related? That was my father's sister's husband.

There were three--ANNA, AUNT MARY, AND CATHERINE. And they were your father's sisters? And then he had CAPTAIN JOHN CASSIN, the brother and my papa. Those were his sisters.

What about the HINTZ side of the family? He had only one sister--EMMA. Where did his mother come from and what was her name? Schleswig-Holstein. Her maiden name was PAULSEN and then she married HINTZ. They came from the Danish <agrin> up near the border. And there was a war. Then she had EMMA, your pa and JOHN--that's all I know of.

When GRANDMA HINTZ was a youngster, there was a war between Denmark and Germany; and the soldiers came in and were stealing everything from their house. Her mother hid her under the table when the soldiers came. Elena? Emma? Lena? I don't know--one of the babies. And she had three babies? Yes.

And HINTZ died? Yes, he died. Then what happened? It was a few years after that she married ZEPP. What was his name? I don't know. He was an architect--he built the Milwaukee library or something, and then we went to New York and he was working there; but she didn't stay with him. She left him in New York and took your pa home to Chicago. They lived in New York--about a year? I don't know. That guy would hardly give your pa anything to eat--he didn't like him. I guess he whipped him--there was something, I don't know.

But she came back to EMMA's with your pa. And I think they lived on Zepulski.

Where did you live on Lemoyne Street--3321. I was born at 507 N. Ashland Ave. What time was I born? Somewhere around 8 in the morning. I was going all night Friday and Saturday morning til Schroeder said "Would you please put water on?" All three were instrument babies.

Said Matthew Cassin was a hero in 1915 when the EASTLAND overturned in the Chicago Harbor and hundreds of people died. Matthew got a medal for helping rescue people.

Remembered Uncle Fred playing with it like it was a badge.

(Made copies of Chicago Tribune newspaper account of Eastland disaster, but did not see Matthew's name mentioned. He was a policeman at the time -- so I wrote to the Chicago Police; the historian said the police records go back to 1920. Also checked Tribune for accounts on the 1st anniversary of the disaster -- zip.

Subsequently learned Matthew was with the State Police (info from draft card).

(Asked Frederick Henry Nixty (6B3) if he got the medal when his father died -- and if he had it, to please send xerox copy of it. Aunt June told Mom she found it for him; however, he never sent a copy or answered my letter.)

Dear Carl Springer,

Just to tell you what happened with my mom's funeral - she was 'waked' at Smith Funeral Home but Anna Roach was a dear friend and a retired undertaker since her husband died. She 'laid' my mom out. I'm sure about Anna - the rest I'm almost sure of - those were days & not out of my mind.

Now - my family left Chicago in 1959 when Georg, my husband, was called to active duty in the Army. He retired after 26 moves to most continents and lots of states - here in the DC area - with 2 of our children still at home.

That's Margaret Mary Lambert Talbot 1935 - May 22 married to George Thomas Talbot III - Lt Col - Ret ^{MAY 15-33}

We have 6 children - Margaret Ellen Talbot, Wisconsin - lives in Wheaton Ill. and has 2 children, Katherine Jane 3 and Rita Elizabeth 8 mos.

George T. Talbot III - lives in Glen Ellyn, Ill.

Kenia Cl. Flores Talbot - in Western

Springs, Ill - married 6 mos to Patricia Melaraphy

Timothy Cassin Talbot - in Stevens Point, Wis @ the university

Matthew Adrian Talbot - off to Adeline,

My sister, Dorothy Anne Lambert lived with my parents and then my mom on Thomas Street. She sold it this last year and moved to 2827 Bel Aire Arlington Hgts Ill 60004.

She is a darling person but works with the public all day and has, what used to be referred to, as "an attitude".
Her privacy is important to her and so, I asked her all that she remembered but being the baby - that was not much.

My sister's Brother - Lester John Lambert had married Judith English from Chicago - but both live in Denver - 4278 S. Alton, Englewood, Colo 80110. He's a talker - worse than I am. They have 3 boys -

Lester Jr - works in the PHD dept @ Notre Dame, Ind, Indiana
Brian and John - both in school in Denver.

Back to my sister - the phone book listed Lester Lambert although my father has been dead for years. Probably why he was thought to have 'lived' on Thomas.

Now - on the Xeroxed Census form - It says place of Birth of Father of this person and written in for both John + Annie is what looks like "Free English"
- What?

And John was born in "Free English" + Annie, too.

What does this mean, do you know?
We were told they were both born in Ireland - I believe my sister said it was in some other cities altogether than you have listed - my sister would know as they went to Ireland together + visited the area. None of us knew much about the Cassins growing up. John Graham was clear of mind and lived into his late 80's or early 90's - but I was only 10 or so and though much loved by him and enjoyed each other, we never talked about family.

We were told Uncle Bud - Cassin Francis Graham was the last of the Cassins - hence they gave him his name.

We were about 45 years old - 35 ish for my sister when we found out my mother was adopted. She realized that in contemporary times - it was passe' to be ashamed but had been made to feel so as a young girl. There was a cousin

4. "Bess" who lived in Dixon, Ill. These relatives were all Grabons. Uncle Pat, Mike - Aunt Winifred & Marie all lived in a home on the River & had cousins - Marguerite ~~Reynolds~~ Moore being the most often seen. These people were all old enough to be my mom's mother or grandparents. Anyhow - Bess & some unnamed others told her she wasn't so big city or "monied" ^{money} & she was adopted - inferring an illegitimacy. I think she never told her parents.

She told us all this and that she remembered going to a train & Uncle Bud coming home as an infant when she was about 3.

There are some pictures of Grabons that my sister has - people we are not even sure as to names. Would you like them? - The only reason they've been kept is that one does.

My grandfather had a firm at Cicero Ave & Madison Streets in Chicago. He built a rather large apartment building there and the name Grabon is still on the front up high. There are 2 stores & at least 6 apartments - terrible neighborhood now.

My mother says there were filled all through the depression & nobody had money for rent. My grandfather had in at the Gas Co. and let them ride. When the depression was over - jobs came and they all left. No back rent was offered. Mom said some were relatives and I vaguely remember an Aunt Fanny for sure. Possibly this was another reason that the family drifted apart.

There was a Cousin Nellie. She was married to a man named 'Connie'. I remember him for having a girl's name and terrible bad breath. They lived in an apt on the South side & were about 60-70 when mom was about 40. They had a child - a girl I think - I never met her, if I'm even correct.

When my mom first told me she was adopted, I said - unthinkingly "gee, you may not even be Irish!" I spent the rest of her life trying to smooth that one over - she loved being Irish. I told her that when she was adopted - Irish Catholics got Irish Catholic orphans - that was basic. It was very important to her.

One more rambling rumor. As a child, our family visited constantly with my "Cousins" - but then, one called all mom's friends "Aunt" - so I offer this with a grain of salt. The

6.) family I am referring to were William RINN - married to, probably Dorothy - whom we called Aunt DODIE.
If they - through Aunt Dodie's side - weren't real relatives on mom's side - I'd be surprised because I remember them talking about their childhood - Aunt Kitsy - Cousin Nellie, the whole side of the family. Could have been just neighbors.
Anyway - They moved to Crystal Lake, Ill after WWII
"to get away from the Chicago area in case of nuclear attack".
They had 2 kids - Catherine and William. I think the parents are both dead but am in no way sure. What I'm saying is - They would possibly have Cassin information the only information I found on them was in mom's old address book - which says "Bill Rinn - 815-459-4264" and then a ? question mark.

There was also a Charles + Rose Anne Anderson - he was the son of Kitsy Anderson. These are shirt tail relatives - they lived in Oak Park, Illinois for years. I may find an address for them, I think. ^(got it) My sister says Kitsy was a cousin, Charles is her son. Last address

314 Lathrop, River Forest 60304 (c) 771-6549.

I will send on copies of what you gave me to Les and D.A. and see what they say - if anything more. Meanwhile, thank you so very much to include us. It was very generous and I

KNOX PRESENTS WORLD PEACE AS MADE IN THE U. S.

Would Defend Civilization
If Menaced Again.

BY PHILIP KINSLEY.

Marion, O., Dec. 30.—[Special.]—Senator Philander C. Knox, Pennsylvania, who came to Marion today at the request of President Elect Harding to discuss international policies, presented a memorandum to Mr. Harding outlining a new foreign policy which would make America the "potential ally of the defenders of liberty whenever a great menace shall arise," and at the same time avoid entangling the United States politically with Europe. It is Senator Knox's substitute for the league of nations, which, in his opinion, will not be revived in any form by Mr. Harding as president.

The Knox doctrine will be in the form of an addendum to his original peace resolution, vetoed by President Wilson, which will be offered again at the special session next March.

Would Put U. S. on Guard.

The amendment is substantially as follows:

"It is the declared policy of the United States, in order to meet fully and fully our obligations to ourselves and to the world, that, the freedom and peace of Europe being again threatened by any power or combination of powers, the United States will regard such a situation with grave concern, as a menace to its own peace and freedom, will consult with other powers affected with a view to devising means for the removal of such menace and will, the necessity arising in the future, cooperate with the friends of civilization in its defense."

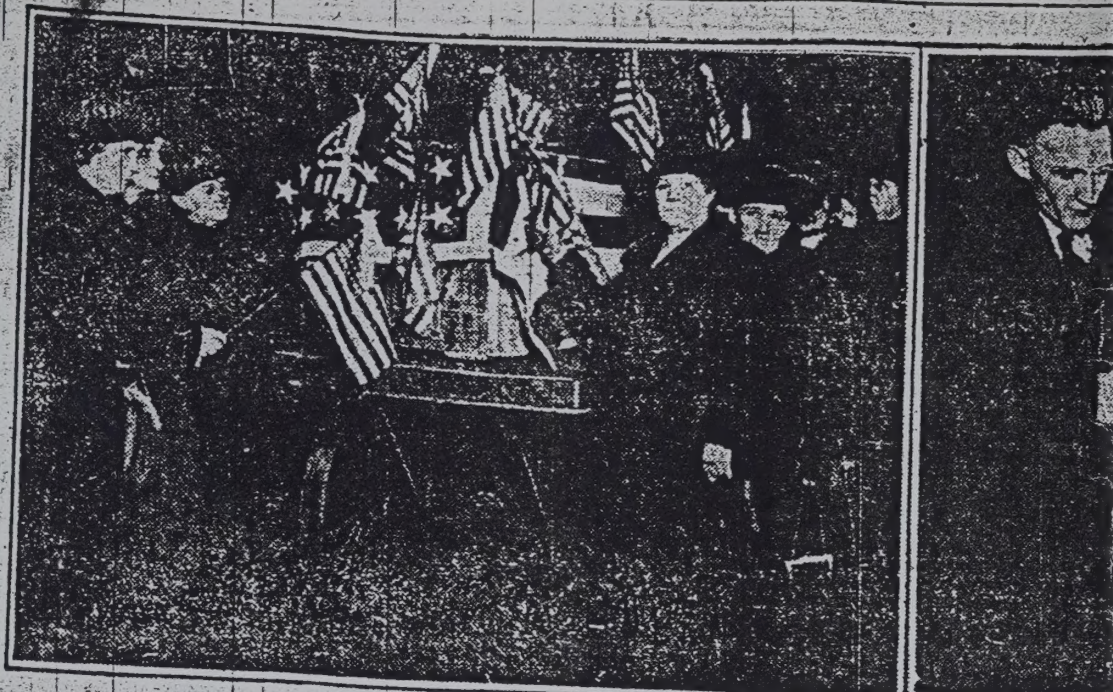

Such a policy, Mr. Knox said, might prove worthy to serve with the Monroe doctrine as a fundamental doctrine of American diplomacy. It might have prevented the war of 1914. It would interfere in no way with the Harding plan for codification of international law, with the creation of a court to decide international differences of a justiciable character, nor with the appointment of commissions to investigate political questions that threaten us with proposals for disarmament, nor with other measures that might be spread on by the nations to lessen the probability of war.

Not to Touch Old League.

Mr. Knox spoke of the rumor current in Washington that Mr. Harding intended to go into the league of nations in some form, a rumor undoubtedly started by Marion visitors who did not appreciate Mr. Harding's affability in listening to their views.

"I never credited it," Mr. Knox said, "because I could not imagine how he could misconstrue the mandate of the people and back track on the speeches he delivered during the campaign. I am convinced by my talk with him this morning that he has no such idea in mind."

If Senator Knox should be appointed

There were no cheers, no waving of flags, no crushing embraces. The long train rolled slowly to a stop in the La Salle street station at 9 o'clock last night. More than fifty of Chicago's hero band were home. Home in flag covered caskets.

As the train crew opened the baggage car doors, a detail of uniformed soldiers marched down the long platform. At each car two guards left the formation and took posts beside the doors. They came to present arms as the coffins were removed from the cars.

Twelve Gold Star mothers waited inside the gate. There were a few tears, but only a few. More than two years of waiting had prepared the women. They gave hurried orders, and in a short time had left the station. The heroes' bodies will be taken to homes and undertaking rooms this morning.

One hundred and fifty bodies arrived on the train. Over a third of them were Chicago boys.

GIRL ACCUSES BENEDICT OF CAVE MAN STUFF

Frank J. Halsey of 506 North Pine avenue, said to be an official of Goss Printing company, was locked up at the Warren avenue police station last night on complaint of Juanita Cooley of 2916 Washington boulevard.

Halsey is a married man. But, according to Miss Cooley's story, his affections wandered from the home fireside. For several months, she said, he has been trying to force his attentions on her.

Last night, Miss Cooley told the police, Halsey drove up to her house in an automobile and at the point of a revolver forced her to accompany him. For two hours they drove around, she said, while Halsey pleaded his devotion. She spurned him. Halsey became enraged and struck the girl several times, she said, knocking out two of her teeth. She went to the station with her brother and signed a complaint.

Halsey at the station said his wife was going to have Miss Cooley arrested for alienation of his affections. He denied having a revolver.

PENROSE TAKEN TO HOTEL SUITE IN INVALID CHAIR

Washington, D. C., Dec. 30.—[Special.]—Senator Boies Penrose, invalid chairman of the finance committee, arrived in Washington from Atlantic City tonight in a special car. The senator was driven in his big "red devil" from the station to a palatial new apartment engaged for the winter at the Wardman Park hotel. Arrived there, he had to be wheeled in an invalid chair to his quarters.

Senator Penrose would not talk for publication, but it is known he has come here to be in touch with his colleagues on tariff and tax legislation.

BLACK AND TANS ARE BLAMED FOR BURNING OF CORK

Martial Inquiry Report Reaches London.

BY JOHN STEELE.

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.) (Copyright: 1920: By The Chicago Tribune.)

LONDON, Dec. 30.—The report by Gen. Strickland, commanding the Cork military district, on his investigation of the origin of the Cork fires has been completed and is now in London, but as yet has not been presented to the cabinet.

Although it was announced that Gen. Strickland's findings would not be published for several days, I was informed today that the report states that the fires were started by black and tans in revenge for an ambush by Sinn Feiners upon comrades earlier the same day.

Would Abolish Force.

The report also will condemn roundly the personnel and morale of the black and tan force and will recommend its abolition. While Gen. Strickland's report will say that subsequent fires were started by unidentified looters, chief blame will be rested upon the military police.

It will be recalled that the first act of Gen. Strickland under martial law in the Cork district was to expel the black and tans from that area.

Cabinet Debates Erin.

A great struggle is reported to be going on in the British cabinet between advocates of Irish peace and those in favor of a stern policy of repression. The cabinet is meeting daily this week and so far no decision has been reached.

AMBUSHES NEAR CORK

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.) (Copyright: 1920: By The Chicago Tribune.)

DUBLIN, Dec. 30.—A serious fight between ten armed policemen and an "Irish republican" force in Main street, Middleton, County Cork, was officially reported here tonight.

The police, while marching through the town at 9:40 o'clock last night, were suddenly attacked. Constable Martin Mullen was shot dead and six others were wounded. The rebel casualties were not learned.

A police convoy from Cork, coming to give assistance, was ambushed two miles from Middleton and a sergeant was seriously wounded.

CLERGY ISSUES WARNING.

DUBLIN, Dec. 30.—Catholics of the archdiocese of Tuam are reminded that armed resistance to the crown is unlawful by Archbishop Thomas F. Gilmarin of Tuam in a letter he has just issued, saying:

"Under the new canon law members of secret societies that plot against the church or state are ipso facto excommunicated. Oaths taken by members of such societies have no binding force, and those who joined them must leave. They will also cut their connection with societies whose members may be called upon to commit murder by shooting servants of the crown or civilians."

13 PLANES END FIRST DAY "HOP" ON WEST COAST

Pacific Air Squadron on Way to Panama.

San Diego, Cal., Dec. 30.—Thirteen of the fourteen seaplanes of the Pacific air squadron, which started today on a 3,000 mile flight to Balboa, Canal Zone, completed the first "hop" of their journey today and are berthed in San Bartolome bay, 400 miles from their starting point.

The dozen planes of the F 5-L division all got through safely, the last one landing at 2:05 p. m., five hours and forty-five minutes after the take-off here this morning. But misfortune overtook NC-5, one of the two great NC seaplanes.

After trying for three and a half miles to leave the water, the plane hit a heavy swell off Point Loma while the aircraft was "taxiing" at the rate of forty miles an hour. The impact buckled the hull near the bow. Water poured through a small hole into the forward compartment, and Lieut. Baugh, in command, realized that to continue further without making repairs would be highly dangerous.

The crippled NC-5 then worked its way back to the naval air station landing. After repairs the plane will make another effort.

For a long time no word was received here concerning the NC-6 and some anxiety had begun to be felt, but early this evening a radio message reported the big plane had "landed" at 4:05 p. m.

EASTMAN LAID IN HERO'S GRAVE; GANG FORGOTTEN

New York, Dec. 30.—Thousands of men and women from all walks of life paid homage to "Monk" Eastman, murdered gangster-soldier, at his funeral in Brooklyn today.

Remindful that his record as a leader in the east side's gang conflicts had been cleansed by his heroic behavior in the world war, the silent throngs gathered about an undertaker's little chapel where his body lay and listened to recitals of the best in his life.

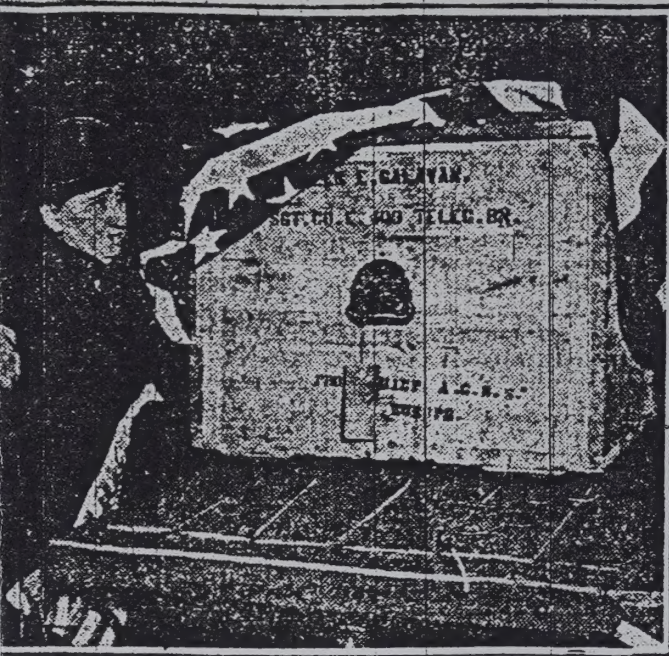

The "Monk," whose real name was William Delaney, was buried in the uniform of a soldier of Company G, 105th Infantry, with a Victory medal over his heart and two wound stripes on his right sleeve. An American flag was draped over the casket.

On a silver plate attached to his coffin, inscribed there by soldier friends, was this: "Our lost pal. Gone, but not forgotten."

WASHINGTON NEWS —IN BRIEF—

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 30.
[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

Objections were made in the senate today to the expenditure of $100,000 on the inauguration of President Elect Harding. Senator Borah calling for a fixed limit and expressing the opinion that $10 for the hire of an automobile for the president elect would be sufficient.

President Wilson, following protests by organized labor, vetoed the bill delaying for another year the date on which section 10 of the Clayton act becomes effective.

About 7,000 government employes in the District of Columbia must be dropped, if congress passes the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation bill in the form in which it has just been completed by a subcommittee of the house appropriations committee. The subcommittee has reduced estimates of $136,000,000 to about $100,000,000.

The New York Central railroad has asked permission to acquire the Chicago Junction Railway company terminal properties at Chicago. This road runs into the stockyards.

Chairman Good prepares to fight against awarding "a single cent" to the shipping board in appropriations.

A bureau of construction and housing would be established in the department of commerce, under a joint resolution introduced today.

The senate adopted a resolution calling on the state department for the records and status of all claims filed against the German governments by Americans.

A bill introduced by Senator Jones provides that all state registration and election officers who discriminated against women seeking to vote be punished.

The nomination of Peter Augustus Jay of Rhode Island to be minister to Roumania was sent to the senate.

Under a resolution introduced by Senator Sutherland, the government would indorse and the public would be asked to contribute to the relief movement for the children of central Europe.

Gold producers alone have not profited by increased prices. Representative Raker told the house, urging his bill to increase the price of gold $10

WILSON VETOES BILL DELAYING CLAYTON R.R. ACT

Washington, D. C., Dec. 30.—[Special.]—Heeding the protests of organized labor, President Wilson today vetoed the bill extending for another year the date on which the interlocking directorate section of the Clayton act, applying to railroads, becomes effective.

The president sent a veto message to the senate in which he declared that "the wholesome effects which its application was intended to produce should no longer be withdrawn from the public and from the common carriers immediately concerned, for whose protection it was particularly designed." Reasons assigned for further delay, the president said, are inadequate.

Conferences among members of the senate and house committees on interstate commerce following the veto developed a tentative program not to attempt to pass the bill over the veto.

The probable course will be to wait until the special session of congress following the inauguration of President Elect Harding and then revise section 10 of the Clayton act.

Section 10 of the Clayton act is designed to prevent the railroads from purchasing supplies from companies in which officials of the roads are interested. It also applies to dealings in securities between railroads.

As a result of the veto this section becomes effective on Jan. 1. The pending measure provided for an extension of one year.

GIRL ACCUSES BENEDICT OF CAVE MAN STUFF

Frank J. Halsey of 506 North Pine avenue, said to be an official of Goss Printing company, was locked up at the Warren avenue police station last night on complaint of Juanita Cooley of 2916 Washington boulevard.

Halsey is a married man. But, according to Miss Cooley's story, his affections wandered from the home fireside. For several months, she said, he has been trying to force his attentions on her.

Last night, Miss Cooley told the police, Halsey drove up to her house in an automobile and at the point of a revolver forced her to accompany him. For two hours they drove around, she said, while Halsey pleaded his devotion. She spurned him. Halsey became enraged and struck the girl several times, she said, knocking out two of her teeth. She went to the station with her brother and signed a complaint.

Halsey at the station said his wife was going to have Miss Cooley arrested for alienation of his affections. He denied having a revolver.

PENROSE TAKEN TO HOTEL SUITE IN INVALID CHAIR

Washington, D. C., Dec. 30.—[Special.]—Senator Boies Penrose, invalid chairman of the finance committee, arrived in Washington from Atlantic City tonight in a special car. The senator was driven in his big "red devil" from the station to a palatial new apartment engaged for the winter at the Wardman Park hotel. Arrived there, he had to be wheeled in an invalid chair to his quarters.

Senator Penrose would not talk for publication, but it is known he was come here to be in touch with his colleagues on tariff and tax legislation.

BLACK AND TANS ARE BLAMED FOR BURNING OF CORK

Martial Inquiry Report Reaches London.

BY JOHN STEELE.

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]
[Copyright: 1920: By The Chicago Tribune.]
LONDON, Dec. 30.—The report by Gen. Strickland, commanding the Cork military district, on his investigation of the origin of the Cork fires has been completed and is now in London, but as yet has not been presented to the cabinet.

Although it was announced that Gen. Strickland's findings would not be published for several days, I was informed today that the report states that the fires were started by black and tans in revenge for an ambush by Sinn Feiners upon comrades earlier the same day.

Would Abolish Force.

The report also will condemn roundly the personnel and morale of the black and tan force and will recommend its abolition. While Gen. Strickland's report will say that subsequent fires were started by unidentified looters, chief blame will be rested upon the military police.

It will be recalled that the first act of Gen. Strickland under martial law in the Cork district was to expel the black and tans from that area.

AMBUSHES NEAR CORK

BY JOHN LESTER.

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]
[Copyright: 1920: By The Chicago Tribune.]
DUBLIN, Dec. 30.—A serious fight between ten armed policemen and an "Irish republican" force in Main street, Middleton, County Cork, was officially reported here tonight.

The police, while marching through the town at 9:40 o'clock last night, were suddenly attacked. Constable Martin Mullen was shot dead and six others were wounded. The rebel casualties were not learned.

A police convoy from Cork, coming to give assistance, was ambushed two miles from Middleton and a sergeant was seriously wounded.

CLERGY ISSUES WARNING.

DUBLIN, Dec. 30.—Catholics of the archdiocese of Tuam are reminded that armed resistance to the crown is unlawful by Archbishop Thomas P. Glavin of Tuam in a letter he has just issued, saying:

"Under the new canon law members of secret societies that plot against the church or state are ipso facto excommunicated. Oaths taken by members of such societies have no binding force, and those who joined them must leave. They will also cut their connection with societies whose members may be called upon to commit murder by shooting servants of the crown or civilians."

13 PLANES END FIRST DAY "HOP" ON WEST COAST

Pacific Air Squadron on Way to Panama.

San Diego, Cal., Dec. 30.—Thirteen of the fourteen seaplanes of the Pacific air squadron, which started today on a 3,000 mile flight to Balboa, Canal Zone, completed the first "hop" of their journey today and are berthed in San Bartolome bay, 400 miles from their starting point.

The dozen planes of the F 5-L division all got through safely, the last one landing at 2:05 p. m., five hours and forty-five minutes after the take-off here this morning. But misfortune overtook NC-5, one of the two great NC seaplanes.

After trying for three and a half miles to leave the water, the plane hit a heavy swell off Point Loma while the aircraft was "taxling" at the rate of forty miles an hour. The impact buckled the hull near the bow. Water poured through a small hole into the forward compartment, and Lieut. Baugh, in command, realized that to continue further without making repairs would be highly dangerous.

The crippled NC-5 then worked its way back to the naval air station landing. After repairs the plane will make another effort.

For a long time no word was received here concerning the NC-6 and some anxiety had begun to be felt, but early this evening a radio message reported the big plane had "landed" at 4:05 p. m.

EASTMAN LAID IN HERO'S GRAVE; GANG FORGOTTEN

New York, Dec. 30.—Thousands of men and women from all walks of life paid homage to "Monk" Eastman, murdered gangster-soldier, at his funeral in Brooklyn today.

Remindful that his record as a leader in the east side's gang conflicts had been cleansed by his heroic behavior in the world war, the silent throngs gathered about an undertaker's little chapel where his body lay and listened to recitals of the best in his life.

The "Monk," whose real name was William Delaney, was buried in the uniform of a soldier of Company G, 108th Infantry, with a Victory medal over his heart and two wound stripes on his right sleeve. An American flag was draped over the casket.

On a silver plate attached to his coffin, inscribed there by soldier friends, was this:

"Our lost pal. Gone, but not forgotten."

RAVE WOMAN IS FORGOTTEN.

Louis E. Worthen, a news dealer at 4213 Broadway, reported to the police yesterday that a woman yesterday cashed a check for $15 at a loop store, to which she had forged his name.

WINNIE WINKLE, THE BREADWINNER. "Happy" New Year Callers.

Happy New Year was an empty phrase to Winnie Winkle. Out of work, prices high, and prospects of getting work poor. Winnie's outlook on the New Year was anything but happy. She smiled through her tears as she responded to the good wishes of her friends. She could even smile at old man Ganzy.

Later in the afternoon, Simon Konshus called, and for an hour Winnie forgot the pangs that were tugging at her heart. She tried, oh so hard, to encourage the bashful Simon, but he could not even summon up the courage to start the New Year right. He bid Winnie a kissless good-by, amid profuse blushes.

Simon had hardly gone, when a knock came at the door. Another New Year's caller, thought Winnie as she flung open the door. It was the landlord, who had called to wish her a happy New Year, and, among other things, it being the first of the month, to present his bill for the rent.

Winnie was mortified. It this wasn't the height of nerve! She slammed the door shut and rushed to her room in a fury. "Of all the hard boiled eggs! It isn't bad enough to be out of a job on New Year's, but Mr. Poison, the landlord, has to sail in with the bad news."

SOCIETY AT THE OPERA

Spaces which oft times yawn on "regular night" were filled with the crème de la crème of society last night for the Chicago premiere of a favorite opera. Brilliant gowns and jewels made for a gala appearance in the parterre, where many of those who have boxed on subscription nights preferred to sit, perhaps for a change, perhaps to get a better view.

MUSIC and the MUSICIANS

BY RUTH MILLER.

The only place Mr. Holst's devotion to the oriental subject bobbed up in his suite for large orchestra, "The Planets," which was given its first American performance at Orchestra hall yesterday, was in his turning for his titles to the pseudo science that still flourishes in the east, astrology. For nowhere in his rhythmically concise and harmonically compact composition does one find the sinuous whine, the perfumed exotic music of the orient.

He is patently a disciple of the Mittel Europa school of music making that has its sturdy root in Bach and its vivid blossom in Richard Strauss. His orchestration is devoted to sound in the mass that we have come to recognize and a distinctly Teutonic symphonic idiom. There is nothing fugitive about his melodic lines. Wagner's "Traume" constituted one of them in the second section, called "Venus, the Bringer of Peace."

pendable and successful addition to the orchestra repertoire. It contains all the platitudes of greatness.

It would be an impertinence to expound at great length on the satin touch, the certain fingers, the musicianship the flashes of fire and emotional vividness, and the courteous charm of manner that have made Fanny Bloomfield Zisler both great and beloved. This Chicago pianist is an institution and needs no recommendation from this department.

Yesterday, after we had been formally introduced to the Holst work, she appeared as soloist, playing Rubinstein concerto No. 4 in D minor. Those of you who hear her this evening should mark how in the last movement of that composition she does something that the usual pianist has neither brains or the ability to do. It was that bit where she procures the effect of a perfect pizzicato (or plucked strings) from her instrument.

SOCIETY AT THE OPERA

Spaces which oftentimes yawn on "regular night" were filled with the crème de la crème of society last night for the Chicago premiere of a favorite opera. Brilliant gowns and jewels made for a gala appearance in the parterre, where many of those who have boxes on subscription nights preferred to sit, perhaps for a change, perhaps to get a better or—perspective.

Preceding the third act Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood, who with Mrs. Wood heaped the opera from back stage, made a talk on behalf of Hoover's European children's fund; nurses from the Presbyterian hospital passed through the audience with cards and boxes for offerings to this emergent need. Mrs. Russell Tuxon and Mrs. Arthur Ryerson, who are active in Mr. Hoover's Chicago committee, were early arrivals and assisted in presenting the cause to the public.

With Mrs. John Ryerson were Mr. and Mrs. George H. Clarke of Cooperstown, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. John Alden Carpenter, Robert Allerton, and John H. Ryerson.

Mr. and Mrs. Dexter Fairbank, Mrs. Harry Shearson, and Oren E. Taft were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Inaull.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Barney Goodspeed, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Wheeler, and Miss Elizabeth Farwell were together.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Carry were hosts to Mr. and Mrs. Hale Holden and Mr. and Mrs. Frederic W. Upham.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Tuxon and J. Dear Bradley occupied a box together. With Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Cudahy were Dr. and Mrs. Hugh T. Patrick and Mr. and Mrs. Edward G. Pauling.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Hulbert had with them Mrs. George Dunlap, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Hancock, and Mrs. John Hamline.

Mr. and Mrs. George M. Reynolds were hosts to Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Eckhart and Mr. and Mrs. Earle H. Reynolds.

Miss Abigail Harding, sister of President Elect Warren G. Harding, Dr. and Mrs. John A. Wesener, Judge and Mrs. Theodore Brentano, and H. G. Wesener, the latter of Saginaw, Mich., occupied a box.

With Harold F. McCormick and Miss Muriel McCormick were Mrs. W. H. Beriven, Mr. and Mrs. Richard T. Crane Jr., and Harold Fowler McCor-

MUSIC and the MUSICIANS

BY RUTH MILLER.

The only place Mr. Holst's devotion to the oriental subject bobbed up in his suite for large orchestra, "The Planets," which was given its first American performance at Orchestra hall yesterday, was in his turning for his titles to the pseudo science that still flourishes in the east, astrology. For nowhere in his rhythmically concise and harmonically compact composition does one find the sinuous whine, the perfumed exotic music of the orient.

He is patently a disciple of the Mittel Europa school of music making that has its sturdy root in Bach and its vivid blossom in Richard Strauss. His orchestration is devoted to sound in the mass that we have come to recognize and a distinctly Teutonic symphonic idiom. There is nothing fugitive about his melodic lines. Wagner's "Traume" constituted one of them in the second section, called "Venus, the Bringer of Peace."

His rhythmic figures are fascinating, curious and irresistible. The demonic insistent martial pulse of the first fragment, "Mars, Bringer of War," was the most vital sample. As a creator of musical atmosphere, Mr. Holst is not quite absolute. "Neptune," heralded on the program as "the mystic," would come out just as well under the title of "A Pleasant Day." The silken shimmering veil of mysticism has nothing in common with the straightforward melodic bit. Also his "Mercury, the Winged Messenger," sounded much more like a carousal among a select coterie of knomes and dwarfs blind from living in the darkness than symbolic of this mythical exponent of speed.

"Uranus, the Magician," sixth in the list, was a bit of conventional and effective musical necromancy.

Mr. Holst should not be listed among the younger English composers. First, because he is almost twice the age of Bax and Goossens; then his outlook, since his fairy godmother left out the precious gift of a child's heart at his christening, is staid, scientific, capable and prosaic and effective, and last but not least, his music melodically and harmonically shows the heavy marks of the bygone musical great.

Of the seven fragments of this suite the two that we would go out of our way to hear again were those designated as "Mars" and "Uranus." But "The Planets" should be a most dependable and successful addition to the orchestra repertoire. It contains all the platitudes of greatness.

It would be an impertinence to expound at great length on the satin touch, the certain fingers, the musicianship the flashes of fire and emotional vividness, and the courteous charm of manner that have made Fanny Bloomfield Zeller both great and beloved. This Chicago pianist is an institution and needs no recommendation from this department.

Yesterday, after we had been formally introduced to the Holst work, she appeared as soloist, playing Rubinstein concerto No. 4 in D minor. Those of you who hear her this evening should mark how in the last movement of that composition she does something that the usual pianist has neither brains or the ability to do. It was that bit where she procures the effect of a perfect pizzicato (or plucked strings) from her instrument.

Dear Ms. Springer,

Thank you for your interest in the Illinois Regional Archives Depository System (IRAD).

Upon your request, both the 1888 and 1892 Record and Index of Persons Registered and of Poll List of Voters were searched for MICHAEL CASSIN, JOHN J. CASSIN, and JOHN O. CASSIN. As the 1888 Record and Index is alphabetized by the first two letters of the surname only, pp. 385-445 needed checking as all CA-surnames were located there by ward. Unfortunately, only one James CASSIN was found (p. 399, 6th Ward, nativity-Ireland) and one Patrick CASSIN (p. 419, Ireland).

Better luck was had when the 1892 Record and Index was searched (vol. 16, p. 278). Enclosed are photocopies of the Record from microfilm, compliments of the Secretary of State of Illinois. This was the only JOHN CASSIN registered in Chicago in 1892. It is possible that he could be one of the John CASSINs that you are seeking, enough so to warrant sending these copies to you.

As our depository is primarily a facility of older government records, we unfortunately do not have much in terms of resource material on subjects such as fraternal/ethnic associations per se. Enclosed is a list of additional institutional sources through which you might obtain an answer to your query. If we can be of any further assistance, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Sincerely,

Ingrid Latimer Schulz

THE LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF FLORENCE CASSIN HINTZ

I, Florence Cassin Hintz, widow of Fred A. H. Hintz, mother of Florence LaGrand, Frederick M. Hintz, and Willis D. Hintz, am setting forth this, my will.

I have a home at 5500 N. Marmora Avenue, Chicago, Illinois. My request is that at the time of my death it is to be sold, and the proceeds divided between my three children. Should one of them want to buy the home, they can reach an agreeable decision. If none of our children wants to purchase the house, it should be sold, and the proceeds divided between our children.

My savings account in the Bell Savings, Chicago, Illinois, which is under a trust agreement, is to go to our three children, Florence, Frederick and Willis.

The account in the Northern Trust, which is also my savings, is to go to our three children.

I also have an account with the Peerless Savings & Loan, which money is also to be divided between our three children.

I have three insurance policies with Metropolitan Life Insurance Company. These are to apply to my funeral expenses.

Now, my wish is that each of our three children is to take ~~$500.00~~ from their money received from this estate, and divide that amount between their children (my grandchildren). Willis's 6 children, Frederick's 4 children, and Florence's 1 child.

Now, please, I hope there will not be any argument between the families. I love all the families.

All gifts that have been given to me should be returned to those who gave them, like the organ and the Hi-Fi radio, gifts from Florence and Carol, should be returned to them. Now, I will say, please take each of the gifts you gave me, and please divide the rest of my things between yourselves. I know you will know what to do with them.

Fred and June have been paying $30.00 per month rent up until January 1st, 1966, at which time they started to pay $50.00 per month for rent. June + Fred have been paying 60.00 per month later I pay all real estate taxes, water bills, insurance bills, and have paid the alley pavement bill, car license, insurance, etc.

Fred and June pay half of the telephone bill ($7.36 is the monthly bill), and they pay $8.00 every two months on the gas bill. They have been paying 1/2 of gas bill, after they put in gas heater - They pay one-half of the electric bill.

I think, and I hope, all things have been covered.

Now for my daughters-in-law and my son-in-law, they will be partners with their husbands and wife. In the event of the death of any of my children, my daughter, Florence, my son, Frederick, my son, Willis, then I hope their spouse will share the money with my grandchildren (the children of my children).

God Bless You All. I wish you good health and always stay together, all my families, children and all.

Love From Your Mom

I think, and I hope, all things have been covered.

Now for my daughters-in-law and my son-in-law, they will be partners with their husbands and wife. In the event of the death of any of my children, my daughter, Florence, my son, Frederick, my son, Willis, then I hope their spouse will share the money with my grandchildren (the children of my children).

God Bless You All. I wish you good health and always stay together, all my families, children and all.

Love From your mom

Dear Mrs. LaGrand:

I closed the real estate transaction this morning and accordingly, I enclose:

1. Copy of the closing statement for your file;
2. Check No. 106754 for 1/2 of the net cash balance due;
3. My Escrow check No. 585 for $1,027.76, representing the 1/2 of the earnest money after deduction of my fees.

I also enclose paid bills for my services rendered. Since the title to the property was not merchantable on the onset, it would seem the one bill (of $350) should be shared 1/3, 1/3, and 1/3, and that perhaps this could best be done at the time the account at Bell Federal Savings is divided up.

Dear Florence

Evelyn & I addressed most of the appreciation cards on Saturday. I finished them up tonight. I didn't have the card that was on that plant you took home from your neighbors and no addresses for Masini Church. I'm sending you this box. If you need more let me know. I've sent 107 already.

It's not the same when I go down stairs. The chair looks so empty

I try to tell myself this in Fort Wayne with you - But that don't work -

Boy hasn't it been cold. I got good news from my doctor. I don't have gall stones - He called it something else and it can be treated with medicine. Our prayers were answered.

We all hope your bath will & Carol, Lee, Julie & Shelly too.

Will see you soon.

House Passes Greatest of All Tax Bills by a Unanimous Vote.

profits, liquors, tobacco, and luxuries—were approved by the house substantially as drafted unanimously by the ways and means committee after three months' labor. Roughly, the total tax levy doubles present returns from internal revenue under existing laws.

In the senate mounting war expenses and revenue reduction by prohibition are factors entering into revision, expected to be extensive. Much senate sentiment exists for reduction of the bill's aggregate levy, while Secretary McAdoo already has disapproved any substantial increase.

Major Tax Features.

Major tax features of the bill, as transmitted to the senate, and estimated revenue yields include:

Income tax:

Individuals' normal rate increased from 5 to 12 per cent, with the first $4,000 at 6 per cent and exemptions of $1,000 for single and $2,000 for married persons—$414,000,000.

Individual surtaxes on incomes over $5,000; present ranges of 1 to 65 per cent increased to from 2 to 63 per cent—$1,068,000,000.

Corporations' incomes, increased from 6 to 18 per cent, but with only 12 per cent payable on dividends distributed, debts paid, and new Liberty bonds bought—$894,000,000.

War and excess profits of corporations—80 per cent on war profits and virtually doubled rates on excess profits, raised from 35 to 70 per cent—$3,200,000,000.

Beverages, present rates doubled—$1,187,600,000.

Tobacco, present rates doubled—$41,204,000.

Luxuries and semi-luxuries, 30 and per cent—$272,555,000.

Other excise taxes, including automobile sales, jewelry, 2 cents a gallon on

BATTLE LISTS OF DAY BEAR NAMES OF 5 CHICAGOANS

Only one Chicagoan was named in the official casualty list issued last night—Private Arthur Woodman, an interpreter with the One Hundred and Sixteenth United States engineers, missing in action. His home is at 1123 Noyes street, Evanston. Relatives previously had notified THE TRIBUNE and a picture and biography were published Sept. 18.

Four Chicagoans were named in the early list, one killed in action, one dead of wounds, one wounded severely, and one missing in action. In the Canadian list, G. A. Warburton was listed as killed in action and C. A. Goodrich as missing in action.

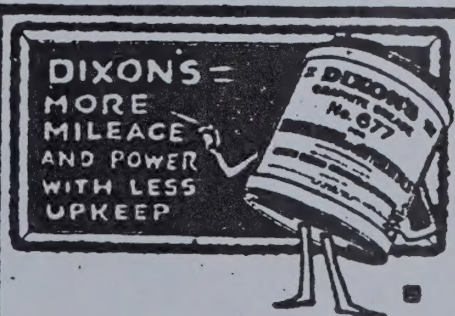

Letter received yesterday by Mrs. Elizabeth Cassin of 1648 North Central Park avenue, conveyed the information that her son, Private Matthew J. Cassin of Company E, One Hundred and Eighth engineers, had been killed in action. He was performing night construction work in some newly captured territory close to the German lines when caught in an enemy barrage.

Mrs. J. Turgstad, 2234 North Tripp avenue, has received word by letter that her adopted son, Private John E. J. Turgstad, Fifth United States Field Artillery, has been gassed. He enlisted in May, 1917. He was formerly a foreman with the Western Electric company.

The parents of Lieut. William Hugh Shearman Jr. of the United States aero forces are still awaiting official confirmation of the report that he is missing.

Wilson Thanks Advertisers for Indorsing Peace Stand

Joseph P. Tumulty, secretary to President Wilson, wired to the Advertising Association of Chicago yesterday the thanks of the president for the association's recent wired indorsement of his stand in refusing a "bartered peace."

and the payor knew it but the payee did not, if he accepted the bill he must stand the loss. Notes, drafts, contracts and checks were drawn "Payable in current funds" or "bankable funds." There was always a hustling among business men to get the days receipts into the bank before four o'clock. Within a short time seventy-nine banks failed in the State of Ohio. All kinds of foreign coin circulated for specie payments; the English gold sovereign and silver three pence, the French Louis d'Or and silver franc, Mexican doubloon and Spanish dollar. The United States had coins running down from the big octagon fifty-dollar gold piece to the copper half cent. The business man had to have Thompson's Bank Note Reporter and Presbury & Co.'s Counterfeit Detector laying near the cash drawer to test the paper money and a bottle of aqua fortis to test the coins.

ST. PATRICK'S ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH OF JOLIET

From the most reliable information obtainable at present it seems to be safe to state that St. Patrick's Roman Catholic Church, on the corner of Exchange and Broadway, is the oldest Catholic church building now in service in the State of Illinois. In corroboration of this statement the quaint contract under which the stone work was done is here given verbatim:

"Joliet, May 1, 1839. We, the undersigned, do hereby contract for and promise to do all the stone masonry of the Catholic Church of Joliet, cut the sills and caps, water table, arch stones, four spires and draw water and do the building according to the specifications for two dollars and fifty cents per perch, reserving to ourselves, however, the right of being paid fifty dollars for dressing and lettering a frontis stone in memory of the charity of the men on the Illinois canal and that of the citizens of Joliet in general.

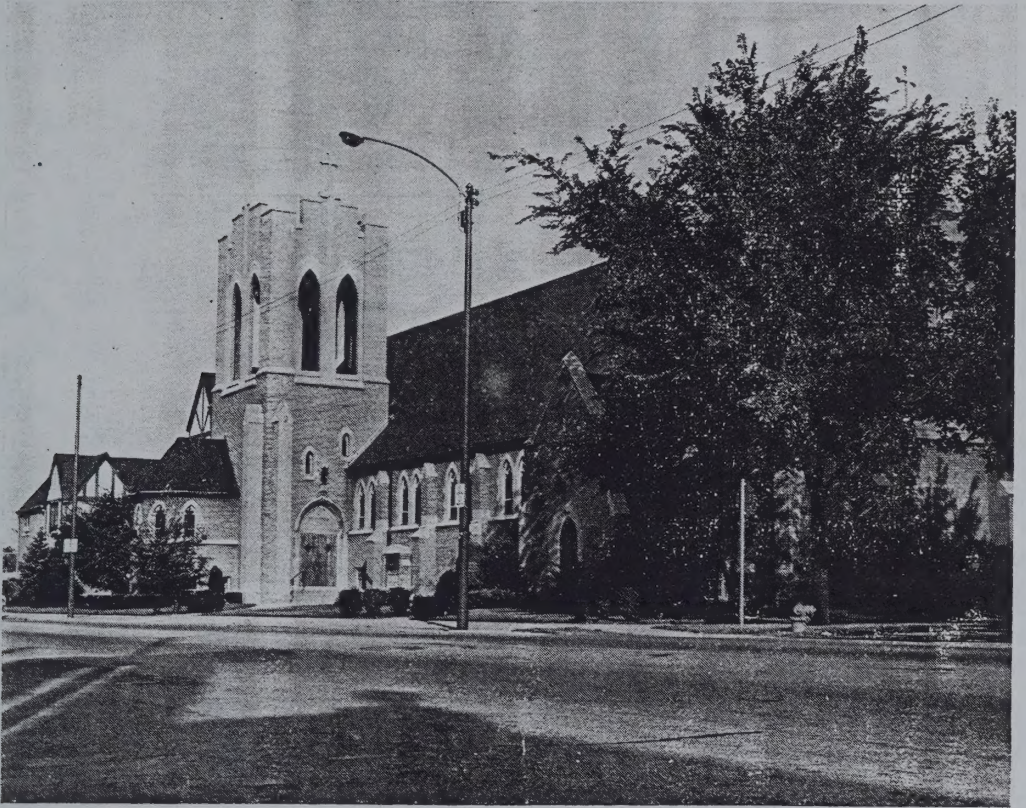

"TIMOTHY KELLY,
"DENNIS KELLY,
"MICHAEL CASSIN."

Payments receipted for on the back amount to $769.00.

Robert T. Kelly, the well-known cashier of the Joliet National, is the son of Timothy Kelly, who signed this contract and was also a contractor on the canal, the Rock Island and Cut Off Railroads. It is possible that some other Catholic church in the State of Illinois can produce as good evidence of greater antiquity, but not probable.

The church, without a steeple, was built under the pastorate of Father Plunkett. Sudden death, from which it had been his life-long prayer to be delivered, came to him when returning from a sick call on horse back. Riding rapidly in a blinding March snow storm, his head bent low to shield his face, a low-hanging limb struck, crushed his skull, and instantly cut off his useful life. He who had spent his life administering the death-bed sacraments to others had to die alone, his life-long prayer unanswered and no brother priest to do for him life's last said offices.

Mrs. Florence Cassin Hintz, a devout member of the church, passed away suddenly on January 6, 1977 at the age of 84 years. Mrs. Hintz was born in Chicago, September 8, 1892 and was confirmed as an adult in St. Peter's April 11, 1954.

She entered holy matrimony with Mr. Frederick Hintz on June 19, 1915, the service being performed by the late Gott-hilf Lambrecht at Cortez Street and Oak-ley Boulevard. This union was blessed with one daughter and two sons. She lived at her present address for 54 years.

Mrs. Hintz attended church services regularly until the later years when health did not permit her coming. She was very active in the Golden Fellowship and was a member of the Home Department for many years. She was also a member of Astrea Chapter of O.E.S.

Her warm, loving smile and friendliness won everyone's admiration. She was deeply devoted to her family and was happiest when they gathered around to hear her play the organ or when one of the grandchildren would play and the rest of the family sing her favorite hymns.

FLORENCE HINTZ

She was laid to rest next to her husband in Waldheim Cemetery who preceded her in death on May 27, 1964.

Those who mourn her passing are the daughter, Florence (Warren) LaGrand, sons Frederick (June), Willis (Evelyn), eleven grandchildren and five great-grandchildren, relatives and many friends.

Miss Mamie C. Hageman, born in Chicago, November 1, 1889, passed away February 8, 1977, at the age of 87 years. She became a member of St. Peter's in 1963 through transfer from St. John's

Dear Carol:

I received your second letter. You are going to think I am the biggest bird-brain alive, but do you by any chance have a copy of your first letter to me? I have misplaced it and turned everything upside down looking for it without any luck.

I was very interested in your information about Nellie Gillis. She sounds like Nellie Mullen. She divorced her first husband and his name might have been Gillis. I don't know. Then she married the man Marty remembers - Conrad (Connie) Hanley.

She did have a son from her first marriage who had mental problems and was institutionalized. Nellie tried taking him home but it never worked out. He did jump from the window.

I had thought Aunt Lizzy was married to John Mullen, but I am beginning to wonder if Mary Cassin was his wife!? It seems to me my grandmother said something about him calling her Nellie. John Mullen was a little uppity himself. His son Lambert was some kind of a genius I guess. Graduated from Yale University and was a concert pianist and moved in high social circles.

I don't know what happened to our old family pictures. I think most of the ones my grandmother had were of the Pecks. I do have a newspaper picture that goes with Captain Cassin's obit. I am enclosing a photocopy.

Carol Springer

Dear Carol:

I received your second letter. You are getting to think I am the biggest bird-brain alive, but do you or any others have a copy of your first letter to me? I was assigned it and turned everything upside down looking for it without any luck.

I was very interested in your information about Nellie Biller. She sounds like Nellie Biller. She is a young woman first husband and his name might have been Biller. I don't know. Then she married the man Harry Rosenberg - Conrad Rosenberg, Henry.

She did have a son from her first marriage who had mental problems and was institutionalized. Nellie tried taking him home but it never worked out. He did live from the window.

I had thought that Biller was married to John Biller, but I am beginning to wonder if Mary Carson was his wife?
It seems to me my grandmother said something about him killing her Nellie. John Biller was a little country himself. His son Robert was some kind of a genius. I guess. He went to Yale University and was a concert pianist and moved in high social circles.

I don't know what happened to our old family pictures. I think most of the ones my grandmother had were of the 1800s.
I do have a newspaper picture that goes with Captain Carson's obit. I am enclosing a photocopy.

I remember Margaret Mary Lambert as an infant. Her father's name was Lester and her brother was Lester, Jr. I heard about the third child but never saw her or knew her first name was Dorothy. Marty's mother Margaret was a wonderful lady and was a teacher of retarded children in the Chicago Schools. They all came to my wedding May 9, 1942 in Chicago.

Would it be possible for me to have Marty Talbot's address?

I have been trying to trace the Rinns. Does she remember them? Bill and Catherine "Dody" and their children Katherine "Katie", Billy and Dick? Dick was born the same year as my younger son Jimmy. The last I heard they were living in Crystal Lake, Illinois. They are not buried in Mt. Carmel, Hillside, Illinois.

Marty's parents and the Rinns were good friends and cousins. Catherine, "Dody" was Pearl Peck Adams (not related to my family Adams) daughter. That is, Kitty Cassin's granddaughter. Marty's mother Margaret was Anna Cassin's adopted daughter. That is Kitty Cassin's niece. Therefore, cousins.

I looked back at some of the Peck information I have and Kitty Cassin Peck did not return to Chicago in 1900. She was already living in Chicago in 1900. She must have returned sometime between 1882 (when my grandmother was born in Clinton, Iowa) and 1900 when my great grandfather George G. Peck died in Stockton, California.

You mention Thomas Cassin in your chart enclosed in your letter. I believe I met his son Byron and twin daughters when I was about 12 years old at a family reunion on the South Side in Chicago. We lived on the West Side of Chicago. It was held in someone's home and we danced and partied in their basement. Everyone had a wonderful time!

Keep in touch!

Dear Mrs. Springer:

Thank you for your continued interest in the Illinois Regional Archives Depository System (IRAD).

In response to your letter of April 27, we were, unfortunately, only able to find scant information concerning the names of your request. Perhaps the good news first, we located a listing for a Thomas F. Cassin on p. 921 of the Civil Service Commission Civil Registers. This record, however, does not list much information.

The record indicates Thomas F. Cassin was appointed patrolman by Civil Service Exam- C.S. on April 2, 1906, #56157. This record does not list his address nor does it list any other corroborating evidence that this is the person you seek. Based on the information that in the directory of 1895 he is listed as a policeman, this led our search to the Registered Voters and Poll List for the year 1892. A listing was located on p. 278 of this record. The record shows that Thomas Cassin lived in the Congressional District #3, Ward #14, Precinct #9, at 507 N. Ashland Ave., was born in Wisconsin, lived in the precinct for 5 years, the county for 9 years, and in the State for 9 years. The record also shows that he voted in that year. It is hoped that this information will help, and will be the same person of your search. No other listings for Thomas Cassin were found in any of our other Civil Service Commission holdings.

Dear Mr. Brown:

I have your letter of June 10, 1952, regarding the ...

It is noted that you are interested in the ...

Very truly yours,

...

With regard to Matthew Cassin, as a State Criminal Officer for the State of Illinois, our archives would not house documents which deals with State police records. However, we have checked the Descriptive Inventory of the Archives of the State of Illinois and although we have not been able to find any indication that the archives houses any relevant types of State Police records for your search they might be better able to assist your request. Their address has been included. Failing this, we also suggest that you contact the Department of Law Enforcement State Police, perhaps they might also help.

For your third request, wives and children were given derivative naturalization status, for wives up until 1922, and therefore no naturalization record would exist for Mrs. Marie Paulsen Hintz. Since there is a slight indication that Miss Paulsen married Henry Hintz after emigrating from Prussia we initiated a search for her record. Unfortunately, no listing was found. While our holdings are far from complete, the National Archives, address included, has the best source of naturalization records and can better be able to assist you.

Enclosed for your convenience is a brochure of our holdings. Although this brochure details our collection, it cannot detail the true nature of our holdings, specifically meaning that many of our records remain unindexed and difficult to search. This is said with an encouragement to on-site inspection. This could prove very beneficial to your requested searches along with providing perhaps other interesting information. Again, thank you for your interest in IRAD. If we can be of any further assistance, please feel free to contact us again.

Sincerely,
James Chlipala

Centennial Bldg.
Springfield, IL

Dear Sirs:

I have had numerous problems obtaining any information on my great uncle, Matthew J. Cassin, who died in a U. S. hospital in France in 1918. Enclosed is the copy of a page from the book Roll of Honor (for Cook Co., IL), where he is listed.

The National Archives is unable to find any military records with the information furnished on this page, and I could not find any mention of his death for that date in the Chicago Tribune.

He was born in Chicago in March, 1895, lived at 1648 Central Park Avenue, and enlisted in Chicago.

Could you tell me where I could find out more specific information about him and, since he died in France, where I could obtain a copy of his death certificate?

I enclose a self-addressed envelope for you convenience.

Sincerely,

Carol Springer

Dear Ms. Springer:

Enclosed are maps to help you find the location of Grave # 206, Block 35, Section T.

If you enter the cemetery from Sheridan Road you will make a left turn at the first north/south road to go to Section Z. A left turn will take you past Z to Section T. Look for an angel between two evergreen trees. That is at the corner of Section Z. About 35 feet west should place you at block 35.

There are round cement markers in the ground with the block in the middle and the lot or grave at the top and bottom. Block is abbreviated "BL" or "BLK".

I hope this is helpful.

Sincerely,

Thomas Berry

Mrs. Carol Springer

Ft. Wayne, Indiana 46815

Dear Carole:

I received your Christmas card and the work of your daughter's wedding is over! I'm sure it must have been a lovely affair and worth all the effort.

I have been attending a day care center (on advice of doctors) and am doing very well. They have given their o.k. for me to try to go to Ireland again (my daughter, Lori, went by herself last year since I was in a nursing home.)

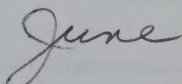

I have finally gotten back to my genealogy research. I am enclosing some of the paperwork on the Cassins, but as usual, I could still use your help. I was hoping that if you would share your America research with me, I would share my Ireland research with you. What do you think? It is my understanding that you have still more American research in your files, but were just too busy with preparations for your daughter's wedding to dig it out.

I am enclosing a reply from Kilkenny Archaeological Society on the Cassins from last year, March 1, 1995. I sent them a fee ($64.00 in American dollars) and received an application for more information, a copy of which I am enclosing. I thought, perhaps, you would be able to assist me in filling it in. When you return it to me, I would then send it to the Kilkenny Arch. Society.

I intend to pay all fees for the Irish research. What I need from you is information. If we could team up, we might just be able to find all the information we want.

Hoping to hear from you soon.

Sincerely,

June C. Lane

Ms June Lane,
93 St. Croix Ct.,
IL 60504,
U.S.A.

Dear Ms Lane,

Thank you very much for your enquiry received concerning your ancestors the Cassin family, together with chq $32, for which we enclose receipt.

You mentioned that John J. Cassin was born c. 1823/1827, possibly in Mullinavat, Co. Kilkenny. He married one Mary Hickey here in Ireland prior to his departure for the U.S. their son John J. was born c.1855 at sea.

We sought a baptism for a John Cassin using our data base, we noted six records between the years 1822/1829. We noted the names of John's children, John and Thomas, we considered therefore that John's father's christian name may have been either John or Thomas. However, without possibly some more family information any conclusions would be highly speculative.

Your application form noted that John married Mary Hickey before leaving Ireland; this marriage was sought in our local data base, but without success. We have not yet input all baptisms and marriages from Co. Kilkenny, so any such search is therefore selective.

Both surnames Hickey and Cassin were numerous enough in the early and mid 19th century Kilkenny. Sadly baptisms from Mullinavat survive from 1836 only, though it may be possible to discover an earlier marriage for the CASSIN family if they originated from this part of the county.

We note that you intend to visit Ireland in July and would be glad to assist with the search. Have you any family information on Mary Hickey? Do you know if the Hickey and Cassin families originated from approximately the same area?

Any further information like this may assist. We suggest firstly a manual search of the remainder of unindexed materials for the baptism of John Cassin as well as his marriage to Mary Hickey. Our fee for this will be IR £40.00 or equivalent in U.S dollars. Please pay cheques to K.A.S. Kilkenny. We will prioritize your request as soon as we have your instructions.

$64.00
USA

We look forward to greeting you, we hope we will be broadly successful in identifying your ancestor's origins prior to your arrival here.

With best wishes,
Yours sincerely,

Mary Flood

Dear Carol:

YOUR LETTER OF SEPT. 12, 1992:

I am sorry this took so long, but I have been working on my mystery novel and have set the genealogical work aside at the moment. I received the first draft of part one back from my mentor and am working on revisions as directed by her. Then I have to start work on part two and send it to her for more revision.

Your comments brought some more info to my mind about the Mullens. Nellie and Etta (family nicknames for Mary and ?) were John Mullen's two daughters. Etta married Neil Gillis (second husband) and Nellie married Conrad Hanley (second husband).

Marty is right about the Rinns being her cousins and they were close. They were real relatives.

William Rinn and Catherine Adams Rinn (Dody was her family nickname - the Irish again) had three children, Katherine, William and Richard. They did move to Crystal Lake IL

Aunt Kitz was my grandmother's youngest half sister. She was one of James Carroll's children by Kitty Cassin Peck. He was Kitty's second husband whom she married after George Gordon Peck's death. Aunt Kitz' name was Catherine Lorraine Carroll Anderson. Charles Anderson is her son and Rose is his wife. They live in a close suburb of River Forest IL. Aunt Kitz is buried in Mt. Carmel Cemetery in Hillside IL.

When I get to researching actual Cassin records from Chicago, it is really helpful to know they were in Chicago in 1879.

YOUR CHRISTMAS CARD OF Dec. 1992

I have not had an opportunity to check out the cemetery in Evanston. I am hoping to get there this Summer. However, as far as I know (cannot prove it) the Cassins always lived on the West Side of Chicago. Evanston is a northern suburb of Chicago, quite a distance from the West Side. However, no reasonable lead can be passed up.

I am enclosing a couple of blank forms from Sister Bernadita at Old St. Patrick's Church, 718 W. Adams Street, Chicago. 60661 Phone: 312-782-6171

I actually have not checked with Sister yet, but since Anna Cassin Graham was married there they may have lived in that Parish. (My grandmother talked about living near Halsted Street, which was a very bad neighborhood at the time, but good enough for the Irish immigrants.)

They must have lived in Old St. Pat's Parish because Halsted runs north and south and Adams runs east and west and they meet to form a corner. My opinion is that they kept moving West to get into a better neighborhood each time. But, that still leaves a lot of questions.

Old St. Pat's Church is about six blocks from the Sears Tower.

Then I think from records I have (grandparents marriage certificate - my mother's baptismal certificate) that they moved to Holy Family Parish, 1019 South May Street, Chicago IL 60607 - Phone 312-143-7207. This would be around 1900.

The family then moved to Our Lady of Sorrows Parish, 3121 W. Jackson Blvd, Chicago 60606 312-638-5800.

From there they moved to St. Mel's Parish, 22 N. Kildare, Chicago 60624 312-287-4567. (James and George Carroll died here and are buried in Mt. Carmel, Hillside.)

They kept moving West! We had moved to the Northwest Side by this time, which was an all new home development.

In this process, somewhere along the line the elder Cassins passed away. Maybe there is an old cemetery (or was) in the area where they lived.

The Irish that came to the U.S. were mostly Irish looking for "a square meal" because of the famine in Ireland. They were Catholics. The Catholic Church has old, old records on these people.

I have been working on my records by generation and have not gotten to the Cassin records, as yet. I started with my own records and moved backwards from there. I know some things from personal experience and my grandmother's stories. But there are big gaps.

I really get carried away when I get on this subject and could go on and on and on. I am also enclosing a list I compiled from Mt. Carmel Cemetery about the family.

I am researching a number of families and trying to move closer and closer to the East Coast generation by generation. Then, I want to go to Ireland and Germany and England to see what I can find. I will research first by mail and then plan my trips (I hope.)

Well, have a good Summer. Let's be sure and keep in touch!

Re: CASSIN

Dear Carol:

I think there is a connection!

It is my understanding that two Cassin brothers came from Ireland. There were seven brothers but they lost track of them.

I think our connection is through Kate Cassin (Catherine - Kitty.)

The family history passed down to me by my Grandmother, who was Kitty Cassin's second daughter is as follows:

John and Mary Hickey (I did not know her name until now) settled in Milwaukee and opened a store. She could not read or write but kept the records through some system she devised. However, John was educated. HE was born in Tipperary and SHE was born in Kilkenny. Mary used to say that she was a "Kilkenny Cat." I never heard anything about County Mayo.

I remember Uncle Johnny Cassin (John J.) as a child. He was a Captain on a Great Lakes Boat and use to take us on trips with him. I don't ever remember meeting his family. I am enclosing two newspaper articles about him.

Aunt Annie and Uncle Johnny Graham lived in Chicago. He did own a building on the corner of Cicero and Madison. His name was on the building. I was there many times visiting him (after Aunt Annie died) with my grandmother. Margaret and Cassin Francis Graham were my cousins. I don't know if the building is still there because the neighborhood is not a very safe place anymore. John Graham came to Chicago from Dixon, Illinois.

I think you may be related through a cousin, Aunt Lizzy. They lived on the south side in a town called Gresham which is now annexed to Chicago at about 87th and Halsted. She was married to a postman named John Mullen. Their children were named Nellie, Lambert, Benton and another daughter whose name I don't recall.

There is a similarity in the names. Your great-grandfather married Elizabeth and Aunt Lizzy could have been named for her. She had a daughter named Nellie which is used for Mary in Irish families. I don't know where the Mullen family is buried.

I don't recall hearing anything about Mary Cassin.

As to (our?) great-great grandparents John Cassin and Mary Hickey my grandmother talked about her Grandfather Cassin coming to their house when they were children in Chicago and bringing them all candy. She said he was a dapper dresser with a white beard. I do not know where John and Mary Hickey Cassin are buried.

Most of our family is buried in Mt. Carmel Cemetery in Hillside, Illinois. This cemetery opened in 1900. It has no record of John and Mary Hickey Cassin.

Anna L., John and Cassin Francis Graham are buried in Mt. Carmel, Hillside.

As to Catherine (Kitty-Kate) Cassin:

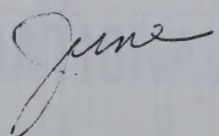

She was my great grandmother. She is buried in Mt. Carmel. She died in Chicago at age 65 in 1925. At the time of her death she was married to James J. Carroll.

She was originally married to George Gordon Peck who is my great grandfather. They were married March 15, 1879. They settled in Clinton, Iowa where George Gordon's family had settled as pioneers from the East Coast. They had two daughters Mary Pearl and Frances Elizabeth (my grandmother.) George died in Stockton, California in 1900.

Kitty returned to her parents in Chicago with her two little girls. Eventually she was remarried to James Carroll and had other children.

I am happy that you contacted me! If I learn anything at all about the Cassins and in particular John and Mary Hickey Cassin I will certainly let you know at once.

Let's keep in touch.

Dear Florence
and Warren,
Thank you very much for the donation in remembrance of our father. He was a family man and we will always be missing him.

I go to the cemetery every day at this time of my life. It is comforting for me.

I hope you

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

In Loving Memory

Carol Springer
7228 Turkey Run Drive
Ft. Wayne IN 46815

Dear Carol:

I received your second letter. You are going to think I am the biggest bird-brain alive, but do you by any chance have a copy of your first letter to me? I have misplaced it and turned everything upside down looking for it without any luck.

I was very interested in your information about Nellie Gillis. She sounds like Nellie Mullen. She divorced her first husband and his name might have been Gillis. I don't know. Then she married the man Marty remembers - Conrad (Connie) Hanley.

She did have a son from her first marriage who had mental problems and was institutionalized. Nellie tried taking him home but it never worked out. He did jump from the window.

I had thought Aunt Lizzy was married to John Mullen, but I am beginning to wonder if Mary Cassin was his wife!? It seems to me my grandmother said something about him calling her Nellie. John Mullen was a little uppity himself. His son Lambert was some kind of a genius I guess. Graduated from Yale University and was a concert pianist and moved in high social circles.

I don't know what happened to our old family pictures. I think most of the ones my grandmother had were of the Pecks. I do have a newspaper picture that goes with Captain Cassin's obit. I am enclosing a photocopy.

I remember Margaret Mary Lambert as an infant. Her father's name was Lester and her brother was Lester, Jr. I heard about the third child but never saw her or knew her first name was Dorothy. Marty's mother Margaret was a wonderful lady and was a teacher of retarded children in the Chicago Schools. They all came to my wedding May 9, 1942 in Chicago.

Would it be possible for me to have Marty Talbot's address?

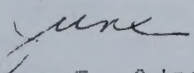

I have been trying to trace the Rinns. Does she remember them? Bill and Catherine "Dody" and their children Katherine "Katie", Billy and Dick? Dick was born the same year as my younger son Jimmy. The last I heard they were living in Crystal Lake, Illinois. They are not buried in Mt. Carmel, Hillside, Illinois.

Marty's parents and the Rinns were good friends and cousins. Catherine, "Dody" was Pearl Peck Adams (not related to my family Adams) daughter. That is, Kitty Cassin's granddaughter. Marty's mother Margaret was Anna Cassin's adopted daughter. That is Kitty Cassin's niece. Therefore, cousins.

I looked back at some of the Peck information I have and Kitty Cassin Peck did not return to Chicago in 1900. She was already living in Chicago in 1900. She must have returned sometime between 1882 (when my grandmother was born in Clinton, Iowa) and 1900 when my great grandfather George G. Peck died in Stockton, California.

You mention Thomas Cassin in your chart enclosed in your letter. I believe I met his son Byron and twin daughters when I was about 12 years old at a family reunion on the South Side in Chicago. We lived on the West Side of Chicago. It was held in someone's home and we danced and partied in their basement. Everyone had a wonderful time!

Re: CASSIN

Dear Carol:

I think there is a connection!

It is my understanding that two Cassin brothers came from Ireland. There were seven brothers but they lost track of them.

I think our connection is through Kate Cassin (Catherine - Kitty.)

The family history passed down to me by my Grandmother, who was Kitty Cassin's second daughter is as follows:

John and Mary Hickey (I did not know her name until now) settled in Milwaukee and opened a store. She could not read or write but kept the records through some system she devised. However, John was educated. HE was born in Tipperary and SHE was born in Kilkenny. Mary used to say that she was a "Kilkenny Cat." I never heard anything about County Mayo.

I remember Uncle Johnny Cassin (John J.) as a child. He was a Captain on a Great Lakes Boat and use to take us on trips with him. I don't ever remember meeting his family. I am enclosing two newspaper articles about him.

Aunt Annie and Uncle Johnny Graham lived in Chicago. He did own a building on the corner of Cicero and Madison. His name was on the building. I was there many times visiting him (after Aunt Annie died) with my grandmother. Margaret and Cassin Francis Graham were my cousins. I don't know if the building is still there because the neighborhood is not a very safe place anymore. John Graham came to Chicago from Dixon, Illinois.

I think you may be related through a cousin, Aunt Lizzy. They lived on the south side in a town called Gresham which is now annexed to Chicago at about 87th and Halsted. She was married to a postman named John Mullen. Their children were named Nellie, Lambert, Benton and another daughter whose name I don't recall.

There is a similarity in the names. Your great-grandfather married Elizabeth and Aunt Lizzy could have been named for her. She had a daughter named Nellie which is used for Mary in Irish families. I don't know where the Mullen family is buried.

I don't recall hearing anything about Mary Cassin.

As to (our?) great-great grandparents John Cassin and Mary Hickey my grandmother talked about her Grandfather Cassin coming to their house when they were children in Chicago and bringing them all candy. She said he was a dapper dresser with a white beard. I do not know where John and Mary Hickey Cassin are buried.

Most of our family is buried in Mt. Carmel Cemetery in Hillside, Illinois. This cemetery opened in 1900. It has no record of John and Mary Hickey Cassin.

Anna L., John and Cassin Francis Graham are buried in Mt. Carmel, Hillside.

As to Catherine (Kitty-Kate) Cassin:

She was my great grandmother. She is buried in Mt. Carmel. She died in Chicago at age 65 in 1925. At the time of her death she was married to James J. Carroll.

She was originally married to George Gordon Peck who is my great grandfather. They were married March 15, 1879. They settled in Clinton, Iowa where George Gordon's family had settled as pioneers from the East Coast. They had two daughters Mary Pearl and Frances Elizabeth (my grandmother.) George died in Stockton, California in 1900.

Kitty returned to her parents in Chicago with her two little girls. Eventually she was remarried to James Carroll and had other children.

I am happy that you contacted me! If I learn anything at all about the Cassins and in particular John and Mary Hickey Cassin I will certainly let you know at once.

Let's keep in touch.
